Lisa,

As I said, once they take the tent down they are no longer breaking the law. I can issue an infraction citation that may or may not be dismissed in court but that doesn't move them. Its a longer process and a more difficult problem that I am working on with various city entities. My cell number is attached to this email but please be aware that I don't work every day and I also may not be available due to dealing with other encampments or police issues in my area. Please call 877-ask-lapd or 911 for a police response.

Thank you,

Joe

Dear Joe:

Thanks for the update; however when I come in to the office in the am (9:3ish) their tents are up and when I leave 6:30 they are up. So with that being said they are in fact breaking the law. What is your cell number so that I can contact you when I visually see them. Attached is a photo taken yesterday at 10:42 am. You might be aware that some of these guys where on the other side of the park on Cahuenga last week near the pool.

Lisa,

I am working on getting the encampment to move. I have contacted sanitation as well as our HOPE car. I am also working with the Park Rangers to increase enforcement inside the park. I will issue citations for the tents being up after 0600 but they are not breaking the law once the tent is down. I will work on making it as uncomfortable as possible within legal means.

Thanks,

Joe
